

Press release

For immediate diffusion

Saguenay's port of call wins the « Best Port Welcome » price at the Dream World Cruise Destinations Awards!

Saguenay, March 24 2010 – The mayor of Saguenay and president of Promotion Saguenay, Jean Tremblay, is proud to announce that Saguenay port of call has won the "Best Port Welcome" (best passengers' welcome in the World). This reward is given by the prestigious magazine Dream World Cruise Destinations. The other winners in this category are the ports of Dos Bocas (Mexico), Guadeloupe and Nagasaki (Japan).

The Dream World Cruise Destinations Awards are awarded annually to the ports and destinations that provide a service beyond expectations to the ships, passengers and crew. The awards aim to recognize "the ports and destinations that has provided outstanding services" according to the magazine. The selection is done via a survey of Cruise Lines.

"It's a great honour for us to receive this award which underline the quality of our welcome for which we worked so hard from the very beginning", has declared the mayor.

All the ship's passengers in 2009 were greeted by over 50 characters of the huge live show "La Fabuleuse". Professional guides and staff were on the site to provide information about the area and the region. Also, artists and craftspeople are there offering to the passengers their arts and crafts.

"This award is not only accountable to the team of Promotion Saguenay but also the legendary warmth of the people of the region," concluded the Mayor.

-30-

Official source: Ruth Vandal

Assistant-director, Communication and Marketing department
418-698-3157 ext. 6006/ 418-812-8419